

Continuing Resolution

Enacted by Church Council on June 21, 2010

Beginning with the election for 2011, congregation members who are paid staff members may not be elected to Church Council. This does not include those who are called as pastors of the congregation and as such are voting members of the Church Council. A Church Council member who becomes a paid staff member while serving on Council may finish his or her term.